Thank you for your responses.

As we discussed yesterday, the funds are secure with Stripe and the plan for the call today is to discuss our potentially different legal arguments regarding whether the funds held in the reserve account are subject to the turnover order. We are still looking forward to that discussion.

I am copying our counsel, Jonathan Engel and Liz Davis, at Davis Wright Tremaine. They will be handling the call on our behalf and will provide dial-in information.

And on account access, we can work with you to set-up new log-in credentials if you'd like to access the accounts.

Regards,
Tracy

As stated, we are available for a 1230 call, however, as per Mr. Sodono's email, that does not excuse Stripe from transferring the funds now to the Receiver's account. There should be no delay or discussion regarding the transfer of the funds. The order is clear and unambiguous regarding the transfer and any "chargeback" issues you alluded to yesterday can be dealt with in the ordinary course and we can discuss on the call.

I sent wire instructions yesterday.

Thank you

Good morning and thank you very much for your follow up. I am not exactly sure what you mean by "full access." We do not have any account information, passwords, etc. In addition to "full access," under the court order, I need to have the funds transferred to my trust account ASAP. We are available for a call, however, we would like to see the funds transferred before that call or the mechanics on your end on how the funds will be transferred. Much appreciated.

Dear Sari and Anthony,

Thank you for reaching out to Stripe this afternoon to discuss the pending matter directly with us. As we discussed, we are evaluating our position with respect to the funds currently on reserve in the applicable Stripe accounts, and I look forward to discussing this further with you tomorrow. Are you available for a call at 12:30 pm EST?

In addition, I understand that pursuant to the order appointing the receiver, you should have full access to the Stripe accounts at issue here. You indicated that you do not have access, but we are not aware of anything on our end limiting your access at this time. Please let me know if we can assist you in gaining access to the accounts.

Regards,

Tracy
